In order to work through the Listening Comprehension part of the examination, a CD (order no. 5182-CD0-000001) is required.
Dear Learner,

If you have problems understanding all the information on this page, your teacher will be pleased to help you.

There are three ways of approaching this mock examination:

- You can take the test as if it were a real examination.
- You can use the whole or parts of the test for practice purposes.
- You can acquire a general impression of the contents and procedures of the examination.

It is important to decide which of these alternatives you wish to take before reading on.

If you wish to work through the mock examination as if it were a real test, you need the help of a teacher to organise the test in the same way as a real examination is conducted. In this case, please do not read on. Above all, you should not read any of the test items, you should not look at any of the pictures and you also should not look at the information for teachers (on pages 26–34). Wait for the instructions and information that your teacher will give you.

If, on the other hand, you wish to use this test material for practice purposes, we would recommend that you keep to the specified times for the individual parts of the test. In this way you will develop a feeling for the time allotted for the individual test items. You can practise the sub-tests Language Elements, Listening Comprehension (with the help of the CD – order no. 5182-CD0-000001), Reading Comprehension and Writing. The correct answers for the individual items can be found on page 33. Your letter can be marked by your teacher or a similarly qualified person. It is of course not possible for you to practise the oral test by yourself, but you will be able to familiarise yourself with the tasks and procedures as well as with the assessment criteria.

Should you simply wish to have a general overview of the test, all you need to do is to study the test and information material in this booklet.

We hope that you will find this mock examination interesting and that you will pass with flying colours!

Important information:
This is the start of the mock examination.

Before you look at the following pages, we recommend that you read the information for learners on page 3.

A: Thanks for your help. Bye!
B: You’re welcome. Bye.

What did you do at the weekend?

C: Hi Mark. How are you?

C: ___17___ , we went on a boat trip down the Thames. And after that we went to Buckingham Palace.
D: When did you get home?
C: Oh, it was ___18___ late last night, about midnight. I hope we can go back soon – London is fantastic!
You will now hear five short texts. Listen to each text and then decide whether each of the statements in items 19–23 is true or not true. Mark PLUS (+) for true and MINUS (−) for not true on your answer sheet.

You will hear each text twice.

Now you will have half a minute to read the five statements.

Five pupils talk about sport.

19. Jamie Dodds, pupil
   The speaker loves all kinds of sport.

20. Paul Martin, pupil
   The speaker can only do the sport he likes when he is on holiday.

21. Yasmina Shah, pupil
   The speaker thinks sport is good for everybody.

22. Oliver Williamson, pupil
   The speaker likes football.

23. Sarah Harvey, pupil
   The speaker gets more exercise now than when she was younger.
Listening Comprehension, Part 2

You will now hear two short texts. Listen to each text and then decide whether each of the statements in items 24–25 is true or not true. Mark PLUS (+) for true and MINUS (−) for not true on your answer sheet.

You will hear each text twice.

Now read sentence number 24. You will have 15 seconds for this.

24. Your teacher

You have no French lessons this week.

Now read sentence number 25. You will have 15 seconds for this.

25. In a supermarket

You can buy cheaper chocolates at the supermarket all this week.
Listening Comprehension, Part 3

You will now hear five short texts. Listen to each text and then decide whether each of the statements in items 26–30 is true or not true. Mark PLUS (+) for true and MINUS (–) for not true on your answer sheet.

You will hear each text twice.

26. You are on a guided tour of London and hear the following:

You will go into a theatre this morning.

27. A friend leaves a message on your phone. You hear the following:

If the weather is bad the party will be in the house.

28. You are listening to the introduction to a radio programme. You hear the following:

The programme is about a woman who likes animals.

29. You are at a swimming pool and hear the following:

Lisa Thompson should go to the main entrance now.

30. You are staying at a youth hostel. You hear the following:

You can prepare evening meals at the hostel.
3 Reading Comprehension, Part 1

Read the four texts, items 31–34. Then read the headlines a–h. Decide which headline goes best with which text. Mark your answers on the answer sheet.

a) Beach holiday in Australia
b) Boy alive after shark attack
c) Film from book
d) Games, clocks and pens cheaper
e) Kids enjoy animals
f) Kids learn too little at school
g) News in Electronics
h) Summer holidays too long

31. Experts say that a long summer vacation doesn’t make sense in today’s world. This summer, 50 million kids in the USA will spend time watching TV, playing video games and shopping at the mall. In this time they will forget much of what they have learnt during the last school year. Today the world needs clever people so kids have to be smarter than their parents.

32. “Antonia’s Goat”, by B.E. Blackwood, is a family favorite. The book tells the story of a little goat named “Silly” and her human friend, Antonia, who live on a farm with many animals. On December 15, the story will come to the movie theaters. Actress Philippa Prosser, 12, plays Antonia. She says she enjoyed working with all the animals on the set. “I’ve never worked like that before,” Philippa said. “It was really great.”

33. Last week I was at the International Consumer Electronics Show. Here are some of my favorites: The “Piano Wizard” is a video game that helps you learn how to play the piano. The “WidgetStation” is a clock that helps you get information such as weather and news from the Internet without your computer. And with the “Epos Digital Pen” you can put the notes you take in class on your computer.

34. When Australian schoolboy Angus Chapman felt a tug on his leg while playing in the sea, he thought it was his sister. But when he looked closer, it turned out a shark was trying to bite him. Angus, 15, hit the shark and got back to the shore, even though his leg was badly hurt. He was flown to hospital, where he had a long operation. He went home after six weeks and is fine now.
3 Reading Comprehension, Part 2

Read the following texts and then do items 35–38.

Text 1

You receive the following email:

Hi Sarah,

You know I wasn’t at school today. Well, I had a terrible toothache during the night and this morning I went to the dentist. I’m feeling better now but still can’t talk well, so I don’t know if I can come to your birthday party tonight but I’ll try. But I made a cake and my sister will bring it to you if I can’t come.

Take care,

Janet

Read items 35–36. Decide if each of the statements in items 35–36 is true or not true. Mark PLUS (+) for true and MINUS (–) for not true on your answer sheet.

35. Janet has not been to the dentist yet.

36. Sarah will get a cake.
At the beginning of the school year, you get a locker and the following instructions:

Dear student,

Please use your locker only for your books and jackets. Keep it clean and do not forget to empty it at the end of the school year when you return the key to your teacher. For every lost key you will have to pay $10 and for damage to the locker an extra $10.

Have a good year!

Read items 37–38. Decide if each of the statements in items 37–38 is true or not true. Mark PLUS (+) for true and MINUS (–) for not true on your answer sheet.

37. You can put your lunch in your locker.

38. If you lose the key to your locker you will not get a new one.
Reading Comprehension, Part 3

Read items 39–42 and then quickly look through the text. Decide which part of the text (a–f) matches each of the items 39–42 and mark your answers on the answer sheet.

39. You would like to find out about the writer’s surfing lesson.

40. You would like to know something about the people who live in Huntington Beach.

41. You want some information about the writer’s hotel.

42. You want to know where you can eat something in Huntington Beach.
Huntington Beach, California: A Teen Paradise

As a sixteen year old, I speak for myself and other teens when I say a dream vacation can be anywhere, as long as there is a beach. But with so many beaches in the world, how can one choose? Well, after visiting Huntington Beach, California last June with my mom, I think I found my perfect match. What's so great about Huntington Beach?

The first thing I saw as I walked along the beach was the giant pier that stretches more than 1,000 feet across the ocean. This pier was actually built over a century ago, in 1904, and has suffered through much destruction since then. Over 10 years ago, the pier was redone with new structural supports to be better suited for storms and earthquakes. One of the additions was a restaurant called Ruby's Surf City Diner. It's the building with the red roof, all the way at the end of the pier, and it's where local teens go to eat burgers, fries, sandwiches and salads. The portions are huge! You can sit by the window and listen to Beach Boys music from the jukebox as you watch the surfers.

The view from the pier is great and you can see just how beautiful it is here. The ocean glistens in the sun as the sound of waves crashing fills your ears. Palm trees line the soft sand. Of course, you see gorgeous houses, and there's no doubt the area is rich, but the people I met didn't show any snobbishness whatsoever. In fact, everyone here seemed really friendly. I guess they really have no reason to be unhappy when they're living in a place like this!

On the day I surfed, the water was rough and the conditions not perfect, but my mom and I tried it anyway. And it was most definitely worth it. After a quick training session on land from the instructors we were broken up into small groups and taken into the water. I'd come so close to getting up on my board and then lose my balance at the last minute. But the instructors never gave up on me. On my one last try before our lesson was over, I finally succeeded! I got up on my board! Even if it was for less than two seconds before I fell back into the water, it was still a great feeling!

After the surfing, we were pretty wet and cold. So after relaxing for a little while on the beautiful beach, my mom and I went back to our wonderful hotel, The Waterfront Resort. Outside, it's surrounded by flowers, while inside, the lobby has a tropical garden with palm trees and even a waterfall! After a shower, we headed back out for a walk around the town, where we enjoyed getting a good look at other places to stay at in the future.

I'll be the first to admit that we teenagers are hard to please. But Huntington Beach should certainly be proud of how well they cater to teens. While lying on the beach once, I put together a long list of reasons to read to my parents of why we have to go back and vacation in Huntington Beach again as soon as possible. After all, what better place could there be for teens than Huntington Beach, California where the sun always shines and surfing is always so much fun?
You are on holiday and want to send a picture postcard to an English friend. You write to your friend. Write something about three of the six following points. You have fifteen minutes to do this.

- Write something about the town/country where you are staying.
- Tell your friend who you are on holiday with.
- Tell your friend about your plans for the rest of your holiday.
- Tell your friend what the weather is like.
- Say something about what you did yesterday.
- Ask something about your friend.

Don’t forget to begin and end the postcard.
Information concerning the Answer Sheet S30

Only answers marked on the Answer Sheet S30 can be scored. Always use a pencil on the answer sheet.

Each item has only one correct answer. For example, if you think that “c” is the correct answer, mark your answer on the answer sheet in the following way:
Oral Examination

The oral examination consists of three parts:

- Part 1: Getting to know each other
- Part 2: Exchanging information
- Part 3: Consensus finding

Each oral examination normally takes place with two candidates. For each examination there is one examiner. In exceptional cases, e.g. when there is an odd number of candidates at an examination centre, you may be tested by yourself, in which case the examiner will be your partner.

The examination should have the character of a conversation. For the purpose of the test, it is important for you to have an active conversation with your partner. Sit so that you are looking in his/her direction and respond to what he/she says without trying to dominate the conversation.

The oral examination will last no longer than 10 minutes. Before the examination starts, you will have 15 minutes to prepare for the test with the help of candidate’s sheets giving details of the tasks you will have to complete. During this preparation time, you will not be allowed to communicate with your partner.
Preparation Phase

You have 15 minutes to prepare for the oral examination. The oral examination consists of three parts:

Part 1: Getting to know each other

You should talk about yourself. You have a list of things to talk about but you do not need to talk about all the points on this list.

The examiner will ask you one or two extra questions.

Part 2: Exchanging information

You will have several topics which you should talk about with your partner. You should try and get as much information as you can from your partner and give him/her as much information as you can.

Each of you should talk about one of the topics in turn. Each of you has the right to choose a topic in turn. You should not just ask and answer in turn but ask and tell each other about the topics. The questions you ask will depend on the topics. For example, on the topic “Holidays” you can ask: Where? When? Who with? Transport? Hotel? Price? Did you like it? etc.

Part 3: Consensus finding

You should talk to your partner about what you want to do together. You should decide on two activities. Make suggestions and give reasons for what you want to do and why you do or don't want to do something.
Part 1 Getting to know each other

Can you tell me something about yourself?

name?
age?
hobbies?
home?
pets?
languages?

The examiner will ask you one or two more questions about yourself.

Part 2 Exchanging information

Talk to your partner about two or three of the following topics. Ask questions. Talk to each other.

- your favourite song
- Harry Potter
- your favourite boy group/girl group
- your best holiday
- your favourite clothes
- food you do not like
- your best friend(s)
Part 3 Consensus finding

You and your partner want to spend next Saturday together.

What would you like to do?
Suggest something!
Give reasons!
Agree on two activities. When do you want to do them?

go bowling

go to the movies

sit at home and watch a film play badminton

go dancing

go to a fun park like Disneyland
Points and Grades

A maximum total of 100 points can be awarded for the whole examination. A maximum total of 13 points can be awarded for the sub-test Language Elements, a maximum total of 12 points for the sub-test Writing, and a maximum total of 27 points for the Oral Examination. The sub-tests Reading Comprehension and Listening Comprehension have an equal weighting with a possible maximum total of 24 points for each sub-test.

Procedure for Conducting the Mock Examination

Written Examination

Formalities

Hand out the test booklet and the answer sheets S30 and S60.

Make sure the candidates

- fill in their personal information on the answer sheets S30 and S60. In the real examination, this information is needed for the certificates, so it is in the candidates’ interest to write clearly and legibly.

- transfer their answers to the answer sheets using a 2B soft-leaded pencil. In the real examination, answers entered in the test booklet cannot be considered for marking purposes.

- fill in the marks in the appropriate way.

Start the written examination.

The written examination begins with Test 1: Language Elements. This test has two parts. All the instructions are in the test booklet. Fifteen minutes are allowed for this test.

Test 2: Listening Comprehension. This test has three parts. All the instructions are in the test booklet and on the CD. The CD should not be stopped during the test. All the necessary pauses are on the CD. The length of this test (approx. 20 minutes) depends on the length of the recording.

The end of the Listening Comprehension test will be announced on the CD by a gong and the text: “That is the end of the Listening Comprehension. Thank you for listening.”

Test 3: Reading Comprehension follows immediately after this. This test has three parts. All the instructions are in the test booklet. 30 minutes are allowed for this test.

The last part of the written examination is Test 4: Writing. Make sure the candidates know they should write on the green answer sheet S60. All the instructions are in the test booklet. Fifteen minutes are allowed for this test.

After fifteen minutes the candidates should be told that they have ten minutes to transfer their answers to the answer sheet S30.

After ten minutes collect the answer sheets S30 and S60 from the candidates.

Oral Examination

Before the examination

Generally the oral examination will be for two candidates at a time, working in pairs. If, however, this is not possible because of e.g. an uneven number of candidates, the oral examination can be conducted for a single candidate with the examiner taking over the role of interlocutor. The learners should divide up into pairs before the oral examination starts.

Make a timetable allowing fifteen minutes for each test. As there is a preparation period of fifteen minutes before each test, the first pair of candidates will require fifteen minutes’ preparation time before the first test can take place. As the two candidates must not communicate with each other during this time, a supervisor is required for the preparation room.
Information for Teachers

The examination is carried out by one examiner. The examiner gives the instructions, asks questions if necessary and marks the candidates’ performance. The score sheet M10-A2 should be used to do this.

Examination

Introductory phase (approx. one minute)
The examiner welcomes the candidates and starts the examination.

(Hello) Good morning, my name is … Welcome to the examination. This examination has three parts. We’ll start with Part 1.

Part 1: Getting to know each other
The examiner introduces the first part and asks candidate A to begin.

After the first candidate has finished with the brief introduction, the examiner asks one or two extra questions which should, if possible, relate to what the candidate has already said.

The examiner proceeds in the same way with candidate B.

The examiner ends Part 1 and goes on to Part 2.

We want to get to know each other a bit. Can you please talk about yourself? You can use this list to help you.

What about you? Can you please talk about yourself? You can use this list to help you.

Thank you. That was Part 1.

Part 2: Exchanging information
The examiner introduces Part 2 and tells the candidates what to do.

The examiner asks candidate B to begin.

In each examination there are seven topics to choose from. It is not necessary to use all the topics. The exact number of topics discussed will depend on the language competence of the candidates. The examiner should only interrupt the conversation if there are difficulties, e.g. if one candidate has nothing or very little to say on a chosen topic. If the examination runs smoothly, the examiner should only ask the candidates in turn (generally after about one minute) to choose a new topic.

Now let’s go on to Part 2. You should talk to each other about some topics. Ask questions and give each other information. Each of you should choose a topic in turn.

Now let’s go on to another topic.

Can you please begin?
The examiner ends Part 2 and goes on to Part 3.

Thank you. That was Part 2.

Part 3: Consensus finding
The examiner introduces Part 3 and tells the candidates what to do.

Now let's go on to Part 3.
Example:
You want to spend next Saturday together. What would you like to do? Make suggestions. Give reasons. Decide on two activities. When do you want to do them?

If the candidates reach a consensus very quickly, there are several ways of filling the time available:

- Reasons for the activities (Why?)
- Giving more information (What exactly? When exactly?)
- Rejecting activities (Why not?)

If one candidate cannot take an active part in the task, the examiner should take over the role of this candidate in the conversation.

After Part 3 the examiner thanks the candidates and tells them that the examination is over.

That was Part 3. The examination is over. Thank you very much.

Marking
The examiner marks the candidates' performance according to the marking criteria (page 32) using the score sheet M10-A2 (page 29).

Then the examiner transfers the marks for the candidates to the answer sheet S30 using a 2B soft-leaded pencil. To make this easier, the letters used on the two sheets M10-A2 and S30 are identical.
Marking, Points and Grades

For the Language Elements, Listening Comprehension and Reading Comprehension parts of the examination, check learners’ answers with the help of the answer key given on page 33. Award points as follows:

- Language Elements, Part 1: Items 1 – 10, 0.5 points each
- Language Elements, Part 2: Items 11 – 18, 1 point each
- Listening Comprehension, Part 1: Items 19 – 23, 2 points each
- Listening Comprehension, Part 2: Items 24 – 25, 2 points each
- Listening Comprehension, Part 3: Items 26 – 30, 2 points each
- Reading Comprehension, Part 1: Items 31 – 34, 2 points each
- Reading Comprehension, Part 2: Items 35 – 38, 2 points each
- Reading Comprehension, Part 3: Items 39 – 42, 2 points each

For the Writing part, award points according to the marking criteria on page 31.

For the Oral Examination, award points according to the marking criteria on page 32.

Enter the points on the marking scheme on page 24. Add the points for the written and for the oral part of the examination separately.

In order to pass the examination, the candidate must obtain at least 60 points.

If this requirement is met, the grade is calculated according to the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Points Range</th>
<th>Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>90 – 100</td>
<td>Very Good</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80 – 89.5</td>
<td>Good</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>70 – 79.5</td>
<td>Satisfactory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60 – 69.5</td>
<td>Pass</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The entire examination can be retaken as many times as the candidate wishes.
Marking Criteria

Writing

The texts written by the candidates are marked at the local examination centre. Spot-checks are carried out by telc.

Marks are given for:
- Task Management for each guiding point (1-2-3)
- Communicative Design (K)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Points</th>
<th>The task</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>has been fulfilled completely and the guiding point can be understood.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1,5</td>
<td>has been partly fulfilled but with errors in language and content.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0</td>
<td>has not been fulfilled or is incomprehensible.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Points</th>
<th>The communicative design of the text</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>is appropriate to the type of text.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1,5</td>
<td>is only partly appropriate (e.g. salutation missing).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0</td>
<td>is inappropriate to the type of text.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A maximum of 12 points can be awarded. The examiner enters the four marks he/she has given on the sheet S60 (for this a pen or marker in a bright colour should be used) and then transfers the marks to the answer sheet S30 using a 2B soft-leaded pencil. Four marks should be entered in “Marking 1-2-3-K”.

Please do not use the space “telc-Marking.” This is only used for spot-checks.
Oral Examination

The candidates are marked individually. The examiner first assesses their performance on the basis of the way the candidate handles the task, as follows:

Does the candidate make a contribution to the completion of the task?

| | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Yes</td>
<td>A</td>
<td>The task is completed more or less adequately. The candidate shows initiative and makes a positive contribution to the completion of the task, e.g. by asking questions or making suggestions, and does more than simply respond to the other candidate’s utterances. The candidate shows an awareness of the typical phases of the scenario.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Partly</td>
<td>B</td>
<td>The task is completed more or less adequately, but the candidate does not very often show initiative, e.g. by occasionally asking questions, and responds simply to the other candidate’s utterances. The candidate shows little awareness of the typical phases of the scenario.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>No</td>
<td>C</td>
<td>The candidate makes hardly any contribution to the completion of the task. This is achieved almost exclusively by the other candidate.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The candidate is then assessed on the basis of the quality of the language used.

Is the quality of language adequate?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Yes</td>
<td>The language is generally free of errors. There are no problems understanding the candidate.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More or less</td>
<td>The language contains a number of errors, but there are very few problems understanding the candidate although an occasional checking question may be necessary.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Faulty</td>
<td>The candidate’s performance contains a lot of errors so that communication is very limited.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Incomprehensible</td>
<td>The candidate’s performance contains so many errors that communication is (almost) impossible.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>

</table>

Part 1

19. The only sport I like is tennis. We don’t play it at my school but there is a tennis club near my house. I like playing outside, so I usually play tennis four times a week in the summer. I play in the winter too but only once a week. That’s all the sport I do.

20. I hate most sports. The only sport I enjoy is skiing. I live in a city so I can’t go skiing when I am at home. But my family and I go to the mountains in France every Christmas and then we all ski. Even my grandmother!

21. Well, let’s see. On Tuesdays I play football, on Thursdays I go running and I swim every weekend. That makes me feel good and helps me learn better and I never have to watch what I eat. Everybody should exercise and do sport!

22. Every Saturday, my brother and I go to a football match to watch our team play. My brother also plays football at school but I hurt my knee last year, so unfortunately I can’t play at the moment. Sometimes I watch a game on television with my friends – that’s fun too!

23. When I was younger I did lots of sports. I was even in the school swimming team! But now I think sport takes up too much time. I have so much homework now that if I have some free time I prefer going to the cinema or meeting my friends.

Part 2

24. Hello everybody! Listen carefully. There are some changes to your timetable this week. Please write this down. Your maths lesson on Tuesday morning will now be in room 25 and not in room 33. And all your French lessons have been cancelled for this week because Mr. Dayley is ill. That means no French again until next week. Also, your computer class has been changed from Wednesday morning to Friday morning. It is still an hour and a half and starts at 11am.

25. Good evening and welcome to CheapBuy Supermarket. We have some great offers for you here tonight: save 25% on CheapBuy washing powder – yes, that’s 25%! Or buy two bottles of Shiny shower gel for the price of one! That’s right, buy one bottle of shower gel and get a second bottle free! Plus, now you can really enjoy our Luxury Chocolates – buy two boxes and get a third box free! But hurry, these offers are tonight only!

Part 3

26. On our guided tour this morning we will walk along the Thames River, passing Shakespeare’s historic Globe Theatre and the new Tate Modern Art Gallery. Unfortunately we don’t have time to see these places from the inside this morning but they are very interesting if you have time later in your stay. A tour of the Globe Theatre costs £6 and the Tate Modern is free!

27. Hi, it’s Amy. I’m having a party on Saturday night. It’s at my house – you know the address – and it starts at 8pm. If the weather is nice, we are going to have a barbecue in the garden. If it rains, we can eat in my kitchen. Do you eat meat? I’ve forgotten… Hope to see you there. Don’t be late! Bye!

28. And now it’s time for Gary Brown’s weekly programme about animals. Today Gary visits a woman in Scotland who lives in a small house in the country with 22 cats and three dogs. And where do they all sleep? In her bedroom of course…!

29. Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls. Four-year-old Lisa Thompson has lost her parents. Would one of Lisa Thompson’s parents please come to the main entrance right away.

30. Hi everyone and welcome to the Dublin Youth Hostel. Let me give you some information about this hostel. There is a kitchen on each floor for you to do your own cooking – we only ask that you wash up after you have finished cooking! There is also a TV room on the second floor. You can watch television there until 11pm every night.

International certificates are becoming increasingly important for further education and work purposes as proof that a certain level of language competence has been reached. This applies equally to adults and to young people still in full-time education. This telc English A2 School examination follows the telc format for other language examinations at level A2 but is designed for young learners of English aged 12 to 16. All the characteristic features of telc, such as test papers based on clearly formulated language tasks, objective and standardised marking criteria and defined test specifications, apply to this examination which is in addition closely linked to the needs and interests of young people. This mock examination can be used by teachers and learners in the classroom to simulate a real examination situation. In this way young learners can be fully prepared for the examination. It can also be used for general practice, for information purposes and for examiner training.
